Public favorites-four of them-were again howled over at Aqueduct yesterday where lengths going into the backstretch with the favorite never had a chance to get up over here. Pim's poor showing and H. L. Doherty's absence from competition in singles made it difficult to place these two and it was considered unwise to rank R. F. Doherty alone, although his position was well-defined by his play at Bay Ridge and Newport. In the doubles, some surprise was expressed at the Wienn brothers being placed above Davis and Ward, last year's champions and the American representatives in the international matches, while the omission of the Doherty brothers from the doubles list, when they hold the American championship, was also a surprise. The list was submitted to the U.S. N. L. T. A. Executive Committee at a meeting held on Oct. 31 at the Hotel Waldorf, when the list was officially adopted and ordered placed on record.

The full list, with the handicape assigned to the players in singles, follows:

liams, having a good opportunity to see the work of the hounds

Near Cold Spring Harbor one of the Ellis hounds started a fox. Reynard set a stiff pace and it was a hard ride for all to keep up over the rough country. The run was almost south to Woodbury, when the scent was lost. The run had kested twenty-five minutes and about seven miles covered.

Luncheon was served at Woodbury church and then the huntsmen were off again. A fox was soon started and he, too, was a fast one. He led along the edge of the underbrush and often let the hounds get close and then dodged them. Then the run was along the road and through farms and once a lot of cows in a field were stampeded. A HORSE OWNER'S TROUBLES.

The trials of packs of fox hounds arranged by the Meadow Brook Hunt Club were con-tinued yesterday and two rattling good runs were enjoyed by those who followed the hounds. The meet was at East Norwich pack of Ralph W. Ellis and Pack No. 1 of the Hickory Valley Hunt of Tennessee, owned by Herman B. Duryes and Harry Payne Whitney, were tried. It was raining a little early in the day and was rather foggy, and the scent was easily followed. Two foxes were started and they ran mostly in the open, the judges, Harry Smith and Dorcey Williams, having a good opportunity to see the work of the hounds.

Near Cold Spring Harbor one of the Ellis hounds started a fox. Reynard set a stiff recognition was a bord ride for all to keen up.

Hope that new administrations would favor a reconciliation between the Century Road inb of America and the Century Road Club Association received a blow yesterday by R. A. Van Dyke, the candidate for the presidency of the association. Mr. Van Dyke was not nominated until Wednesday night, was not nominated until Wednesday nigit, when, at a regular meeting of the association, the nominating committee reported the following ticket: For president, R. A. Van Dyke, New York; for first vice-president, Dr. L. C. LeRoy, New York; for second vice-president, H. S. Judd, Chicago, for corresponding secretary, W. H. Latham, New York; for recording secretary, H. S. R. Smith, New York; for treasurer, F. W. Eyre, New York; for treasurer, F. W. Eyre, New York. For directors A. G. Matthias, Minnesota, P. Wollenschlager, C. P. Staubach, John T. Wall, A. Pollaseck, John Cornish, For captain, L. V. D. Hardenbergh.

Mr. Van Dyke said vesterday that the attitude of he new administration would be uncompromising and that no concessions to a consolidation of the rival bodies would be made.

Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, champions of the American League, was in he city yesterday and declared that the American League would surely be in New York next year. "Never mind what Brush York next year. "Never mind what Brush or others say about the American League not being able to get grounds," he remarked. "The grounds question is all right and when the American League gets ready to say where they are it will do so. Any talk by the opposition does not iff act the plans of the American League, which knows exactly what it is doing." Mack confirmed the report that Dave Fultz will play with the New York American League team, to be known, by the way, as the Greater New York Americans and which it is expected will be agreal ball team.

Lane Elected Captain of N. Y. Crew. F. Van Z. Lane was elected captain of the yesterday afternoon. He will succeed L. G yesterday afternoon. He will succeed L. G. Blunt, who was captain and stroke last year, and is the only man of last year's crew who is out of college this year. New shells have been provided by Commodore David Banks and a new boathouse is to be built soon on the Harlem River below University Heights on the west end of the campus.

Is a great shoe. Great for style. Great for a certain distinguished shoe air and appearance. Combined with great comfort and great wearing service. It is a dashing form for young men and a young form for old men. In truth, a great shoe. It is noticeable and striking for its fine lines and worth much more in the satisfaction it gives than the money we charge for it.

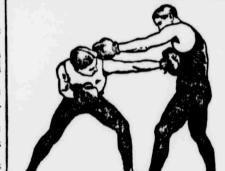

In French enamel leather, linen lined. double soies. biack wax calf and tan grain leather lined double soles.
